

PA WEST- PFMC FESTIVALS COMPETITION 2023

To: Junior Studios Who Participate in PFMC Festivals

From: Barbara Murray, State Festivals Chair, (PFMC) Pennsylvania Federation of Music Clubs

The PFMC is a music organization that is just over 100 years old. Our purpose is to promote American composers and encourage American musicians to reach their highest potential. PFMC is Federated through the National Federation of Music Clubs, the largest philanthropic, non-profit music organization in the United States.

The PFMC Festivals Competition is open to Juniors (through age 18) who participate in the 2023 Festivals and meet all requirements listed below. The purpose of this competition is to offer Festivals entrants the opportunity to take their music to the next level to earn plaques and ribbons and then continue on to the Statewide Competition on April 29, in Williamsport, to compete for monetary awards.

Requirements to participate:

- 1. Entrants must participate in the 2023 Festivals- Piano Solo Event or Concerto.
- 2. 2023 Festivals Competition limited to Piano Solo - Medium Level and Higher.
- 3. Entrants play their Required Piece (listed in Festivals Bulletin) used for the 2023 Festivals.
- 4. Rating for 2023 Festivals Piano Event must be SUPERIOR Rating.
- 5. Applications must be submitted by March 31, 2023.
- 6. Application Fee - $25. This fee is in addition to any other Festivals Fees and non-refundable.
- 7. A COPY of both judging sheets and a COPY of the PFMC state certificate must be included with application.

(Be certain to keep the original documents.)

LOCATION of Competition for the West side of PA is:

SAVE THE DATE

PFMC WEST PIANO COMPETITION

April 8, 2023 10 am

Judging Guidelines for Federation Festivals use 90-100% as a guide for Superior Rating. Festivals Competition judges will receive a printed copy of Festivals Guidelines prior to the adjudication date and are expected to adhere to the guidelines. Judges should have no connection to any entrant competing in the Festivals Competition. Decision of the judges is FINAL. Entrants may or may not receive comment sheets from judges depending on number of entrants. Each entrant will receive a certificate of participation.

Winners from each level will go on to compete at State Competition in Williamsport on April 29th.

The top PFMC Award, the Aikens-Cadman Award will be awarded at the State Competition in biennial years.

Due by mail March 31st:

*Competition Application and $25 Registration Fee (check payable to PFMC)

*State Certificate (Copy) and copies of judges' rating sheets.
