KAREN'S KORNER

I do love Spring! Although it's not my favorite season, I still love it. It's a time when it seems everything is fresh and new. We start to move away from our winter mentalities and come alive again. Bare trees and brown dead grass turn green. Flowers start to bloom and birds return from their homes down south. Actually, it is an inspiring time of the year. I just love the newness of it all!

Speaking of inspiration, this month's program, presented by member Sue Stevenson, The Inextinguishable Symphony is dedicated to just that. Come and learn about the Kunderbund, music, and love in Nazi Germany and be inspired! The meeting is on April 14, 2025 with refreshments at 9:30 AM and program at 10:00 AM.

And as always, Let there be music!

Karen

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK !

April unfolds like a musical tapestry, where the gentle patter of rain weaves seamlessly with the delicate bloom of flowers resting upon a lush bed of green. It is a season of renewal, a time when nature composes a melody of fresh beginnings and endless possibilities. If the start of the year slipped by without resolutions or new aspirations, consider this your second chance—an opportunity to embrace growth alongside the blossoming world around you. Let the rhythm of the season inspire action, whether it's finally attending that concert or play you've been meaning to see or sharing your own musical or artistic talents with those closest to you. Just as spring breathes new life into the earth, let it rekindle your passion for creativity, connection, and the joy of experiencing something truly uplifting.

I look forward to seeing everyone at our final educational meeting of the academic year, featuring a special presentation by Sue Stevenson on April 14th. This will be a wonderful opportunity to gain new insights and connect before we wrap up the season. To celebrate NFMC's National Music Week we will be holding our Honors Recital on Sunday, May 4th. This event will be a showcase of dedication and talent, highlighting the incredible achievements of our students. Be sure to join us for these meaningful moments as we close out the year on a high note!

Jessica Wood

The Jewish Kulturbund was a cultural organization made up of German Jews that lasted from 1933 to 1941. The Kulturbund included a talented orchestra, chorus and many dancers that performed operas, a film bureau, a publishing house that published a newspaper and even a lecture series. The program is based on a book entitled "The Inextinguishable Symphony by Martin Goldsmith; A True Story of Music and Love in Nazi Germany."

Come to hear about this amazing organization from Sue Stevenson on April 14th at 9:30 am downstairs in the choir room at Lifepointe Alliance Church on 228 in Mars, PA.

Come and join us!

See you there!

MEMORIES OF OUR MARCH MEETING !

Opus I celebrated NFMC's International Music Relations with another program in March when Ruth Ann McChesney (in the blouse she bought on one of her 8 visits to Ukraine), presented "The Music of Ukraine". Beginning with everyone getting a map of Ukraine and a list of questions to answer during the program, Ruth Ann talked about everything from the history of the country, the flag, instruments, many famous composers and the group ended by singing Leontovych's best-known piece "Carol of the Bells". Of course the highlight was having guest violinist (with Ukrainian ancestry), Jennifer Sternick playing 3 pieces by Ukrainian composers. It was "educational and entertaining", as one member described the program. Numerous guests attended adding to the crowd.

POSTER CONTEST !

This contest is for students grades K - 6.

Posters should be the size of a standard piece of paper and be based on the theme for National Music Week. The theme is “Music...is Unstoppable”.

The theme should be printed on the front of the poster with the student’s name, grade in school, and teacher’s name on the back.

Bring entries to the Opus I Meeting on April 14, 2025 or to LifePointe Alliance’s office BEFORE Thursday, May 1, 2025. Prizes will be awarded to 3 age groups and all posters will be displayed at the May 4, 2025 recital! Questions? Contact Ruth Ann McChesney at pfmccram@hotmail.com.

MEMBER NEWS !

A big shout-out and happy birthday to our member, Margie Rinaman, who celebrated another 90's birthday on April 2, 2025. We are SO proud of Margie and grateful for the inspiration she gives to all of us. She continues to play the piano each week at LifePointe church, sings in the choir, teaches students at home and does a 'sing-along' every week at a Senior Center. God bless and keep her!

Over 10 active members of Opus I volunteered at the NWW Festivals event on March 3, 2025 at Grove City College. Besides those 10 there were at least 4 or 5 relatives recruited for different responsibilities and Opus I thanks them, too. Bless Linda Maurhoff and Joyce Gindlesperger as well as all the rest that worked so hard that day (and the make up day at LifePointe on March 29, 2025).

Don't forget to have June 26, 2025 on your calendar for the evening that Opus I will present the Butler Co. Symphony Orchestra concert at Cranberry Park. We'll need some volunteers to greet folks and make Opus I known that evening. If you haven't heard this amazing orchestra, DO PLAN to attend and bring your family and friends (and lawn chairs and blankets)!

Word of mouth and personal invitations brought numerous guests to the March program on the music of Ukraine. Do the same for April and enjoy Sue's program.

FESTIVAL RECAP !

Festivals was a success this year! The main event was held on March 22nd at Grove City College. We had 428 registered events from Federated Studios in our region participating this academic year. 83% of participants received Superior ratings. Kudos to all our students and their teachers! Contributing Opus I teachers include: Kathy Csellar, Joan Eisenreich, Joyce Gindlesperger, Linda Maurhoff, Susann Pinkerton, Margie Rinaman, and Jessica Wood. Many thanks to members Ruth Ann McChesney and Sue Stevenson for also volunteering their time in the Theory Room for the event.
